Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Romans 15:5, 6.
What is a “spirit of unity”? What are some things you can do with your friends to worship God together?
- MONDAY—Read 1 Chronicles 22:6, 7, 11.
What did David instruct Solomon to do? If you had been alive during Solomon’s time, how would you have wanted to help with this project?
- TUESDAY—Read 1 Chronicles 22:14-19.
How did God’s people work together to build the temple? What would have happened if they had not worked together?
- WEDNESDAY—Read 2 Chronicles 2:1, 2.
Can you think of a time when you tried to complete a project by yourself but needed help? Why is a leader usually needed for a large project? When serving God, are you more of a leader or a helper?
- THURSDAY—Read Ecclesiastes 4:9.
When was a time that you worked in a group to complete a project? What does this verse mean when it says that two people can have “a good return for their work”?
- FRIDAY—Read Ecclesiastes 4:10.
When and how have your friends helped you? Who are some friends you have helped?
- SATURDAY—Read John 17:20-25.
How are God and Jesus one? Why do you think Jesus prayed to God for believers to work together?
